++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry though rather cloudy. Brighter in the west.

Today:
Largely dry and often cloudy through Friday, with a risk of an isolated shower in the far east. Best of the warm sunshine will be across western areas. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying dry this evening with clear spells. Overnight, any cloud will break away to leave clearer skies. Turning chilly with fog patches developing in prone spots. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Saturday:
A fine and dry day with plenty of sunny spells, though a few scattered showers are possible later. Feeling pleasantly warm in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Largely dry on Sunday with sunny spells and the odd shower possible. Showers becoming more frequent on Monday and Tuesday. Feeling warm, especially in the strong sunshine.
